Date and time: 10:30 29 September, 2011

Venue: 1014 Budapest, Szentháromság tér 6.

Women at home, in the workplace and beyond Central European Alliance For Women's Empowerment International Conference in honour of the Hungarian and Polish EU Presidency

Date: 29 September 2011, 10:30

Venue: 1014 Budapest, Szentháromság tér 6.

Aim of the Conference:

The organisers' primary aim is to draw public attention to the importance of women's equality and to provide a forum for the discussion of the unique challenges and experiences characteristic of the region. By fostering international professional co-operation and knowledge transfer with Polish and Slovakian NGOs, they hope to promote the extension of employment and a more equitable representation of gender equality in tune with the economic goals of the European Union and its stability and growth strategy.

Main Patron of the Conference:

Enikő Győri, Minister of State for EU Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Sponsors of the event:

Ministry of Public Administration and Justice
Sándor Wekerle Fund Management
NCA (National Civil Fund)
BP European Business Service Centre Kft.
